/198 cont./ The cause is almost always the 628 assault of a woman, which should be atoned for by the death of [624] the offender, but, after a great number of arrows have been shot off, the matter is usually settled by the payment of a fine (3).

3. [Coombe, p. 180 (cf. also O'Ferrall, section "Historical Sketch") reports that when peace is concluded the side that has had the fewer losses must give the other side the same number of boys as their excess casualties, and these boys must climb a tree, whereupon they are shot.]

Most of the villages live in indolent peace with one another. It is as a district, however, that the people regard themselves as a [634] unit and stand together in a fight with another district. Thus, in [619] 1912 latent hostility had existed for many years between the inhabitants of the east and west coasts of Graciosa Bay, and communication between the two shores was almost completely cut off.

but I did manage to acquire a few war clubs (Fig. 46) (5). They

5. [This must have been the kind of club that Markham mentions for Nukapu, not the dance club; this is probably also the kind of club with which Bishop Patteson was slain on Nukapu, both of which facts should be mentioned in connection with Ethn., I, p. 132. In mission circles the impression seems to be that Patteson was killed with a bark-cloth beater (O'Ferrall, section "Historical Sketch"; Coombe,
